Business Challenge

Mobile and wireless devices are everywhere. Nearly every business uses some form of mobile or wireless technology to help keep their workforce agile, and effective. However, with the increasing proliferation of mobile and wireless devices in the modern workplace comes the challenge of managing, securing and supporting a diverse new array of assets - among them PDAs, smartphones, laptops, and non-traditional handheld devices.

The real challenge for organizations is how to enable users to take full advantage of this emerging technology, while managing the significant complexity, costs and risks that can be created by a mobile workforce. The ultimate goal is to balance enablement and management in an effort to optimize the value of your mobile investment.

Our Mobile Solutions Suite provides the following:

- ✓ Reduced TCO and improved ROI through more efficient supplier management;
- ✓ Increased speed of access to information;
- ✓ Improved end-user service levels and productivity;
- ✓ A more secure mobile environment;
- ✓ Applications that will improve your business.
